Buyers' Mission info: This is a low-cost, low-risk way to meet foreign buyers in your neck of the woods! We will identify potential importers, distributors, and users of value added agricultural products. Then we'll bring them to a specified location in the U.S. to meet directly with you.

Food Show PLUS! info: If you are exhibiting at an international trade show, Food Show PLUS! will increase your potential for leads and sales. Services may include: product specific market research, store tours, translations, on-site show assistance, and buyer introductions.
